

5
Gave (Don't forget) your Clave. [unclear] [unclear]
[unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear]

2
K
London Monday 15 Nov.
1819<sup>4</sup>

My dear Son,
I received the Notes safe, & will take care to pay over the Balance to Messrs Foulsham.
For the Remainder I will tell you by my next whether it will be best to draw on us or not. I have been delivering some letters & making calls all the day & Elton, Woodhouse & Keats have taken Dinner with me, & are now talking in the Room where I am writing. - I could not see Clave till Saturday day, which occasioned me not to get to Town the last night. - I will tell you more of my Proceedings in a Day or two. - I am very well.
Though cold enough during my ride, no worse for it I am happy to say. In kindest regards to Brother Robt. I am Deardest Son.

Your most affectionate Brother
John Taylor

Mr. Jones / Thylor
Messrs. Thasby & Taylor
Barkewell